Churchwardens' Report.

Year Ending March 15th, 1913.

Your Churchwardens beg to submit for the information and consideration of the Vestry and Members of the Church of the Holy Trinity the Annual Financial Statement for the year ending March 15th, 1913.

The total receipts from all sources, it will be observed, amount to the sum of $12,446.65. Of this sum, $6,734.96 has been received from the Endowment Fund, $1,300.00 on account of proceeds of mortgage raised for the purpose of making improvements to the Canon Scadding House, and the balance ($4,404.69) from general offertories for parochial, non-parochial and special purposes.

The amount required to meet the expenses of the Church, according to the estimates furnished by your Churchwardens at the last meeting of the Vestry, was the sum of $4,243.53.

The actual disbursements in respect of the various items included in this estimate for the year just closed total the sum of $3,832.28.

The total receipts from the offertories of the congregation applicable to apply on account of these disbursements amounted to the sum of $3,242.46, the net result being a deficiency for the year of $589.82.

This deficiency and the deficiencies for the preceding two years mentioned in last year's report, amounting in all to the sum of $1,474.56, have been provided for out of the balance standing at the credit of the Repair Fund Account (being the 10 per cent. received on the annual receipts from the Endowment Fund). In this way your Churchwardens have been enabled to bring down a balance on the credit side of the account of $20.59.

This balance might have been further increased by the sum of $400.00 had we drawn upon the Endowment Fund for the difference between what has been paid out on account of the Edward Street Jewish Mission and the amount actually received from the fund, the difference being charged temporarily to General Purpose Account of the Church.

Respecting this Repair Fund of the Church, against which withdrawals have been made from time to time for the general purposes of the Church, we think it may be fairly stated that this account has been reimbursed to the full extent of these withdrawals by reason of the expenditures made in installing electric lighting in the Church, the cost of which has been paid out of funds received from the Endowment Fund.

We are pleased to be able to report that the improvements and repairs to the Canon Scadding House have been completed, and the building was formally opened by His Lordship the Bishop as a Clergy House in the month of September, 1912.

The amount expended on the property was $7,211.13, particulars of which disbursements are given in a statement herewith submitted.

In connection with these improvements, we are sure it will give special satisfaction to the members of the Church to feel that at last they have been able to carry out the intentions of the late Canon Scadding as expressed in his will in bequeathing the premises, 6 Trinity Square, for the benefit of the Church of the Holy Trinity. We feel that it is appropriate on this occasion to insert in the year book, when it is issued, the extract from his will bearing on this gift.

In addition to the work connected with the Scadding House, contracts were let to the Pease Furnace Company and the Fred. Armstrong Company for the installation of new furnaces for heating the Sunday School and the Rectory, the old furnaces in each of these buildings having been completely worn out and become inadequate for the purpose of heating these premises.

Mention was made in last year's report of the steps taken to have the Church lighted by electricity. This work was completed last July. We hope that the artistic design of the electric fixtures and their arrangement in the Church are in every way satisfactory to the members of the congregation. Undoubtedly there is a vast improvement in the lighting of the Church, and, we believe, a substantial reduction in the cost of lighting will be effected.

The cottage, No. 8 Trinity Square, for many years occupied by the Sexton, was vacated in September of last year. Upon examination it was found to be in such a dilapidated condition as not to warrant the large expenditure of money required to place it in a habitable condition. It was therefore thought best to have it torn down, which was arranged for without expense to the Church.

An intimation having been received by the Churchwardens of the intention of T. Eaton Company, Limited, to bridge over the lane to the south of the Church leading to Louisa Street, a meeting of the Finance and Endowment and Advisory Committees was held to consider the Church's position, and at the same time there was submitted for their consideration the question as to what extent the erection of high buildings of the character proposed to be erected by the T. Eaton Company, Limited, on property contiguous to the Church might effect or interfere with the Church's ancient light privileges, which the Church is entitled to for light and ventilation. It was considered advisable after a thorough consideration of the matter to refer the whole question to Mr. J. A. Worrell, K.C., for his consideration, with instructions to take such action as in his judgment was advisable to protect the interests of the Church. The matter is now in his hands.

The committee having in charge the work connected with the erection of the proposed Memorial Pulpit in memory of the late Rector, Dr. John Pearson and his wife have given the contract for the erection on plans designed by Mr. W. S. Allan to Mr. L. Rawlinson of this city. It is expected that the work will be completed and the pulpit ready to place in the Church about the month of May.

Church of the Holy Trinity

We regret to report that Mr. A. R. Blackburn, who has occupied the position of Organist and Choirmaster at the Church for the past thirty years, finds it necessary, owing to the pressure of his business engagements, to tender his resignation, to take effect at the first of April. The Rector and Churchwardens have taken steps to find a suitable successor, and Mr. Geoffrey Holt, Mus. Bac., who has been highly recommended by Dr. Ham, was offered the position, and it has been accepted by him. Mr. Holt will take up his duties on the first of September next.

Your Churchwardens in retiring from office desire to thank the Rector and members of the Finance and Advisory and Endowment Committees for their advice and assistance in all matters that have been brought before them for their consideration, and in respect of which they have responded so generously at all times.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. D. LANGMUIR,
E. G. FITZGERALD.

Rector's Report.

I wish once more to write a short account of the year's parochial work from the point of view of the Rector:—

I. This year has been one of activity and the fulfilling of promises. Several plans have been matured which I am sure we all feel have been for the benefit of the parish.

The Scadding House.—Every one who has been over this old house will agree with me that the work of renovation and addition has been most excellently carried out, and that we have now a splendid house, excellently adapted for the work for which it is used. The greater part of the tasteful furniture throughout was generously donated by members of the congregation.

We regret that the front room, furnished from the proceeds of a concert held in our School House by the Bishop Strachan School Association, is not being used by the girls and young women who work in nearby factories as a rest room, but we find that they feel they have not the time to use it during their short lunch hour. The room, however, is being put to other useful purposes.

The grant made by the Churchwardens for the men's club room has been expended for a billiard table and some other necessary articles of furniture, resulting in a room which has proved attractive to the young men.

The gymnasium material bought for the Boys' Club, and the use of the vacant lot between the Rectory and the Scadding House as a skating rink, have given the boys of our Church the opportunity for the exercise and recreation which they need.

I mention these matters because they are things which we have been able to accomplish during the past year which bear upon the policy thought best for this Church. For these, together with all the other organizations which meet day by day during the season, make it possible for me to say that I believe we are fairly testing for our parish the value of what is known as Institutional Work

The lighting of the Church by electricity, the equipping of the Parish House, the Sunday School House and the Rectory with complete new heating systems has also been carried out this year. I wish personally to express my thanks for the latter.

We have also this year collected the money, chosen the design and given the commission for the Pearson Memorial Pulpit, which, we hope, will be placed in the Church and dedicated some time in the month of June next.

The above statements indicate that we have had a busy year.

II. Mr. A. R. Blackburn.—Thirty years is a long slice out of life. For that period of time Mr. Blackburn has been Organist and Choirmaster for the Church of the Holy Trinity, and at the end of this month his resignation from that position takes effect.

I cannot allow my 1913 report to pass without bearing my testimony to his sterling worth as a Christian gentleman and to his musical ability. He has during those long years by his painstaking efforts, his complete devotion to his work, and the consecration of his gifts to the service of the House of God, put this congregation under an obligation to him which it can only feebly express and certainly never repay. But such will be repaid by Him Who richly rewards all His faithful servants. For work done—as this has been—with a single heart for the glory of God and the good of His Church will bear for him who has done it an abundant reward. That the God and Father of us all may bless Arthur Robert Blackburn and all who belong to him and make them to prosper in all their ways, is, I know, the prayer of every member of our choir and congregation.

We have procured the services of Mr. Edward Lye and Mr. A. H. Lye, who will act as Choirmaster and Organist respectively until Mr. Geoffrey Holt comes to us in September. We are fortunate in obtaining the services of these gentlemen. I am quite confident that they will be able to preserve the continuity of our choir and to maintain the standard of music to which we are accustomed.

III. Clerical Work.—I am glad to record that the ministerial work has been blessed in every direction. We are doing our best to meet the varied demands made upon us in this down-town parish. We come into contact with all sorts and conditions of men and women day by day and do what within us lies to be of use to them.

The work in St. Michael's Hospital, where we visit the Church of England men; in the House of Industry, where a service is held every week and Holy Communion celebrated once a month; in the Infants' Home, where monthly baptisms are held—this work is still being carried on by the Holy Trinity clergy.

The work of ordinary parochial visiting is, of course, difficult on account of the ever-increasing scattering of our people over this rapidly-extending city, but we are endeavoring, sometimes, I fear, with ill-success, to keep pace with it. The following figures may be of interest:—

Number of Communicants on Easter Day, 1913..	350
Average Sunday Communicants.....	60
Baptisms	115
Marriages	150
Funerals	54
Churchings	15
Number Confirmed	23
Private Communions	26

The attendance at our Sunday Services is about as last year. Our Week-day Services have been very encouraging indeed. The average attendance at the Lenten Noon-day Sermons has been 145. The reverent congregations on Good Friday, especially at the three-hour service, when about 250 were present, the steady growth of the numbers at the early Sunday Celebrations, average 20, and the regular attendants at the Before-work Celebrations on Thursday mornings during Lent (there were 23 present at the 7.15 a.m. service last Thursday morning, the greater number on their way to work) and the general growth in spiritual life and earnestness, the deeper devotion of the people, are things which make me glad this Easter.

So while we as a congregation have discouragements and difficulties, of course, while in this changing neighborhood, in the midst of the noise of the many factories in the process of erection, in which we are only experimenting, feeling our way as it were, there are many things to cheer us up.

I have had during the past two years opportunities of studying Church work in other cities amid conditions somewhat similar to ours, and when I realize what the results are that Churches set amid those conditions have to be satisfied with, I realize that we have no reason to be discouraged with what we are doing here.

IV. The Jewish Mission.—Mr. Berman will have a complete report of this Mission for the Year Book, so it is not necessary for me to go into details. Mr. Berman and his able assistants, Miss Gesnor and Miss Guy, are doing excellent work in a quiet and real way.

I am glad to say that several Churches of the city are showing their practical interest in this work and that the W. A. has made a grant for a woman worker. I sincerely hope that it will not be long before this work will be carried on under the auspices of some general Church authority, as I believe that it is the kind of work that belongs to the whole Church, and not merely to a parish.

V. I am glad that we still have the services of Mr. Hodgkinson. He has by his honest work and ability been a blessing to our parish. It is personally a great satisfaction to me to have as a colleague one who is so thoroughly dependable, capable and sincere.

I extend my thanks to Mr. Berman for his able and willing help at all times when the needs of the Jewish Mission will allow. We are all glad that he has made such a good recovery from his serious illness of typhoid fever of last autumn.

To Miss Hardinge for her excellent and untiring work in visiting in this neighborhood for the organization of the Mothers'

Meeting and the Sunday Evening Babies' Creche, and for her many other good works I also extend my sincere thanks.

I am much blessed in all my colleagues. They make my task easy.

VI. One last word—and that also one of thanks. To all the officers and members of our various organizations for their co-operation, their loyalty, and their friendship, I wish to express my gratitude, and to assure them of my appreciation. Though I cannot be always with them at all their meetings, for that would be to do serious damage to my Sunday Sermons (fragile things at best), nevertheless I am always with them in spirit and interested in their doings.

In closing, there are two names I wish to mention in terms of affection and gratitude—the retiring Churchwardens, Mr. A. D. Langmuir and Mr. E. G. Fitzgerald. No one but those who have been associated with them can know how many hours' work, and how many anxious thoughts they have given to the work of this parish during the last few years. It has been a time of change, of the laying and the carrying out of plans. It would have been very easy to have made some serious mistakes, mistakes which would have run on into the years. You as a Vestry and I as Rector have been fortunate in having during that time the advantage of the excellent judgment, the sane counsel, the breadth of outlook, and unselfish devotion to the interests of this parish of these two gentlemen as Wardens.

My last word is a word of deep heart-felt gratitude to them. It is a word I am sure that is echoed by the whole congregation.

“Therefore let all the House of Israel know assuredly that God hath made that same Jesus whom ye crucified, both Lord and Christ” (Acts 2:36).

“Wait on the Lord, be of good courage, and He shall strengthen thine heart; wait, I say, on the Lord” (Ps. 27:14).

During the past year of happy fellowship with God's dear children in the Church of England Mission to the Jews and holy services in this great modern Babylon of Toronto, again and again one has proved the truth of these precious promises. Never have we more felt the need of prayer and patience, and never have we more realized the faithfulness and mercy of our God in spite of our weakness and unworthiness.

METHODS OF WORK.

Gospel Services.—In the services for Jews on Saturday and Sunday evenings I have often been encouraged by goodly attendances, as well as by good attention. We have no other means of attracting the people to our services but by the preaching of the Gospel, and we find it effective. It is very encouraging to see the Jews join heartily in the singing of the hymns. Here I would express my appreciation of the faithful band of workers who help me at the services, and with whose aid the services are made so pleasant.

Open-Air Work.—Open-air meetings will be held during the summer on Saturday and Sunday evenings in the Ward. I started the open air work in the summer of 1911, and it has been a privilege to proclaim the message of Salvation to crowds of people, warning them to flee from the wrath to come and inviting them to come to a loving Saviour.

Night School.—The Night School for teaching English to foreign Jews is held three times a week during the winter. As soon as the pupils begin to read English we take the Bible as our text book and this has led a young man to receive Christ. On account of persecution he had to leave the city, and he wrote from Hamilton, saying “I believe that Jesus is my Messiah and Redeemer, and I truly believe that He died on the cross for me.”

In spite of the difficulties which belong to Jewish Mission work, God has been working by His Holy Spirit—to Him be all the praise.

Reading Room.—This room is open every night except Monday and Wednesday. It is furnished with Hebrew, Yiddish, German and English newspapers, and also with pamphlets dealing with Messianic prophecies, which are attractive to the Jews. It is around this table that the Jews frequently ask questions concerning the Messiah, and one feels that there is a spirit of enquiry coming over the people.

Visitation.—In visitation work, for which I have but little time, I came across a home with extreme poverty, and this poor widow had to support four children. In visiting the homes, our hearts are often made very sad by the deep poverty and material need, but far deeper spiritual need. There is so much ignorance among women as regards the Word of God that things have to be made very plain and told over and over again before they can grasp them. Really, their ignorance of the Old Testament is hardly to be wondered at when the fact is taken into account that many cannot read for themselves. The men are far easier to interest than the women, and sometimes ask for a New Testament and tracts.

Mothers' Meetings.—Miss Gesner, though only a short time with us, has already won the hearts of the Jewish mothers, and it is most encouraging to see our Mothers' meeting increasing.

Miss Gesner and her faithful band of workers teach these women to sew, and when the hour is over and the work is folded up the women sing a hymn or two, followed by an address in Yiddish by Miss Gesner, and many serious faces follow the words.

Sunday School.—The Sunday School, which is in charge of Miss Guy, assisted by Miss Gesner, has shared in the blessings. The attention and interest has been very marked. Sunday after Sunday these little ones, ranging from three to twelve years of age, come in to hear the Gospel and learn to repeat portions of Scripture and hymns. They join most heartily in the singing, and often ask their teacher for favorite hymns to be sung. We are greatly encouraged to hear from the mothers of these children what little “Sunbeams” they are. A mother whom I visited said to me, “Thank you so much for having my two children in your Sunday School. When they come home they tell me what they have heard, and sing so sweetly that it does my heart good.”

Sewing School.—This department is also under the direction of Miss Guy and a band of voluntary workers. The children are taught how to sew, and even boys are admitted to this class. Miss Guy always closes her sewing school by singing a few hymns and a short address. A mother told me the other day that her little girl always sings “Jesus loves me, this I know.” I earnestly ask you to pray for these little ones, that they may be brought to love Jesus their Messiah.

Girl Guides.—A chapter of the Girl Guides was opened on Monday, March 3rd, 1913, under the leadership of Miss Laura Cassels, and is known as “Chapter 11.” The Jewish children are taught to sing patriotic songs, and if you were to hear them sing “O Canada” and “God Save Our King,” you would come to the conclusion, as I have, that they have come to stay. There are at present in Toronto over 23,000 Jews, and it is our duty to train the young ones to become true and loyal citizens; yea, that they may be enabled to say “I am a citizen of no mean city.”

Average Attendance.—The average attendance at our meetings is as follows: Sewing School, 25; Sunday School, 27;

Mothers' Meetings, 7; Girl Guides, 5; Reading Room, 12; Saturday and Sunday evening services, 20.

During the past fourteen months we have received the support from 13 churches, 9 societies connected with the different churches, 39 subscribers, and from the Woman's Auxiliary $200 toward the support of a lady worker.

ANNUAL REPORT, SUNDAY SCHOOL.

March 24th, 1913.

Another year has passed, and as I glance backward through those months I see three words that are suggestive of the work done—Forward, Results, Success.

We started our forward movement last summer by sending one of our teachers to the Summer School, which more than repaid us in the report and ideas she brought back and so ably put before us at one of our regular monthly meetings.

At Advent we moved another stride forward, when we made our annual promotions and started the Graded School.

At this time we organized our Young Men's Bible Class and put Mr. Livingstone in charge, who has made such a success of it that I could write columns here on what has been done already and what we are looking to in this class alone. There is where I see the words mentioned above—Forward, Results, Success—and what we are looking to in this class alone. This is where a class of 25 young men full of earnestness which is such an inspiration to me that at this moment I feel that if I were to devote all the space allotted me the half would not be told.

Then we have the Young Ladies' Bible Class, of which about 15 meet in the Rest Room, led by Mr. Agar, whom we all know for his earnest, devoted work.

My report would not be complete if I did not mention the work done by Miss Hardinge, who has been instrumental in keeping up the attendance of the School, for generally when we lose one family she has found another to offset our loss.

We have pleasure in welcoming as new teachers Mr. Ince and Mr. Barnes.

The Library this year, through the earnest efforts of Miss Clarke and her assistant, Mr. Chapman, has simply boomed. True, they had a lot of new books to encourage them through the generosity of the Churchwardens, but they need many more, as a great many of the old books had to be thrown away as useless.

The Annual Picnic held last summer to Rosebank was a pleasant affair for those who were fortunate enough to be there. This year I have made arrangements to go to Eldorado Park on Tuesday, July 8th, which, by the way, has been fixed up better than ever, and I hope that many of our friends will bear this date in mind and come with us to this beautiful country park and enjoy themselves and help make this annual event a success from every point of view.

Our average attendance the past year has been 20 per Sunday over the previous year. This is very gratifying to us all.

The summer attendance drops down to about 90 for two months; other months average 140 per Sunday. Total number of scholars on books, about 190.

We have come to a period in the School's history when we need financial support, as a great many of our children are not able to give towards the needs of the school. I found it necessary to canvas a number of friends of the Church, and in this manner was able to meet our expenses for this year, which, by the way, have increased, while our collections have decreased. We are in great need of new equipment, such as maps, etc., and must have money to carry out our work. I hope the Churchwardens will see their way clear to help us materially in this matter.

REPORT RE THE S. S. LIBRARY.

To the Churchwardens and Members of the Vestry:—

In connection with the Sunday School Library, I beg to report as follows:—

In accordance with permission granted at the last Vestry meeting, the Library has been thoroughly overhauled and several hundred of the old books destroyed. The sectional shelves were taken apart and in their place baize-covered shelves were installed.

The $25.00 allotted last year in connection with the Library was expended in the purchase of about 100 new books, and also covered the cost of installing the new shelves.

The Library is now run on the open-shelf plan; that is, every subscriber has free access to the shelves for the purpose of choosing books—as opposed to the old system of choosing books from a catalogue.

The number of subscribers has steadily increased since the Library was reopened. There are now 78 subscribers, and from 25 to 40 books are taken out each week.

Our thanks are due the Sunday School for a donation of $5.00 to the Library, which was used in the purchase of some 30 new books.

The Library is now in splendid running order, and, if I might make a suggestion, it would be that a monthly allotment be made by the Church for the purchase of, say, eight or ten books per month. In this way new books would be added regularly and the Library kept fresh and up-to-date.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Nineteen meetings of the Holy Trinity Branch of the W. A. have been held during the past year, including six business meetings, with an average attendance of 24.

There are 89 members on the roll, of whom 81 are subscribers to the Leaflet and 60 are subscribers to the E. C. D. Fund. All the Branch Pledges have been paid, and subscriptions have been given in answer to several special appeals and for the support for a year of a cot in the new Hospital at Honan.

At the business meetings interesting addresses have most kindly been given by the Rector, by Miss Marsh and Miss Turquard, who represented the branch at the Summer School in Port Hope; by Miss Hardinge, Mrs. S. G. Wood, the Rev. Mr. Whitaker, of Fort Macpherson, and Miss Wilgress, of Hay River.

It was a great pleasure to have the Diocesan Board meeting for March held in Holy Trinity Schoolhouse. There was a very large attendance, and the members adjourned to the noonday service at the Church.

The branch sewed as usual for the Parochial Dorcas Society until Christmas, since when a very large bale has been prepared for the new Indian School at The Pas, Saskatchewan.

The Study Class, under Miss Marsh, has been very helpful and interesting, and has done much towards increasing the knowledge of the growth and needs of missionary work among the members.

With the kind gift of books from some friends a Library for the branch has been commenced.

The meetings are held every Tuesday afternoon from October to May at 2 p.m. in the Schoolhouse. The business meetings are those on the second Tuesdays of the month.

All those interested or desiring to become members of the branch will be most cordially welcomed at any of the meetings.

Executive Committee—Miss Borebank, Miss Harford, Gavin Langmuir, Cecil Pardoe.

A very attractive programme was drawn up for the season, and every meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by those who attended. A spirit of good fellowship has characterized our Social Evenings, and on April 1st, when we entertained four other branches, there were about 250 young people present. We have had two debates, one with St. Anne's Branch, the other with St. Peter's, and in both instances Holy Trinity carried off the laurels. Our young people have been most fortunate in hearing several interesting and instructive addresses on a variety of subjects, which were highly appreciated by us all, and our thanks are due to the Rector, the Rev. J. Hodgkinson, Dr. Hastings, M.H.O.; Brigadier Hargreave, of the Salvation Army; Rev. M. N. Abraham, Rev. V. E. F. Morgan, and Mr. J. B. Watson, Field Lecturer of the National Sanitarium Association, for their enjoyable lectures. Those who took part in the Amateur Theatricals are to be heartily congratulated on the success which attended their efforts in the performance of "Uncle." Last but not least, we have been able to give happiness to others by means of our Pound Concert and the Gift Evening, in the way of Christmas Cheer to the poor of the Parish.

We desire to express our heart-felt thanks to the Rector and Rev. J. Hodgkinson for the active interest they have taken in our Association and for their valuable advice and assistance throughout the season.

Members of the congregation are cordially invited to attend our meetings, and all young people who have not yet become members are asked to join the Association. May the co-operation and enthusiasm of the members make our A.Y.P.A. during the coming season even a greater power for good than it has been in the past, both to the young people themselves and indirectly to those with whom they come in contact.

A. W. LANGMUIR,
President.

The Pearson Memorial.

The memory of the late Dr. Pearson is about to be perpetuated in the construction of a pulpit to be placed in the church which knew him so well. The pulpit is sexagonal in plan, and a network of rich details in elevation.

The general structure is something quite new to Canada. It is principally of oak, with richly sculptured panels in Virginia whitewood, depicting in the most vivid form "The Sermon on the Mount," "St. Paul on Mars Hill," "Timothy Receiving Instruction," and two larger figures, St. Peter and St. Luke, on the right and left centre of the centre panel. The panels and figures are already completed, and have aroused an unusual amount of interest. The style adopted is that known as the Thirteenth Century Gothic, very quaint and rich, but quite new to this country, though greatly venerated in the continental home of ecclesiastical art.

The design is by Mr. W. J. Allen, Sc., R.S.A., who has also executed the sculptural details.

This Guild attends to the Chancel, cleaning the brasses, arranging the flowers and attending to the Church linen.

We have been working for some time on the white hangings, which will be in the Church for the first time on Ascension Day.

The thoughts of the members of the Guild have been with our dear President, Mrs. Langmuir, during her long-continued illness. She bravely came to the Scadding House on the Saturday before her operation, and with her bright unselfishness started us on the work that we all know is so dear to her heart, saying nothing to any of us of what she knew was before her. We are most earnestly praying for her recovery.

The work of the Choir Guild for the past year has been very satisfactory.

One Clergy surplice and fourteen Choir surplices have been made, also two velour curtains for Clergy, Vestry and Music Room doors.

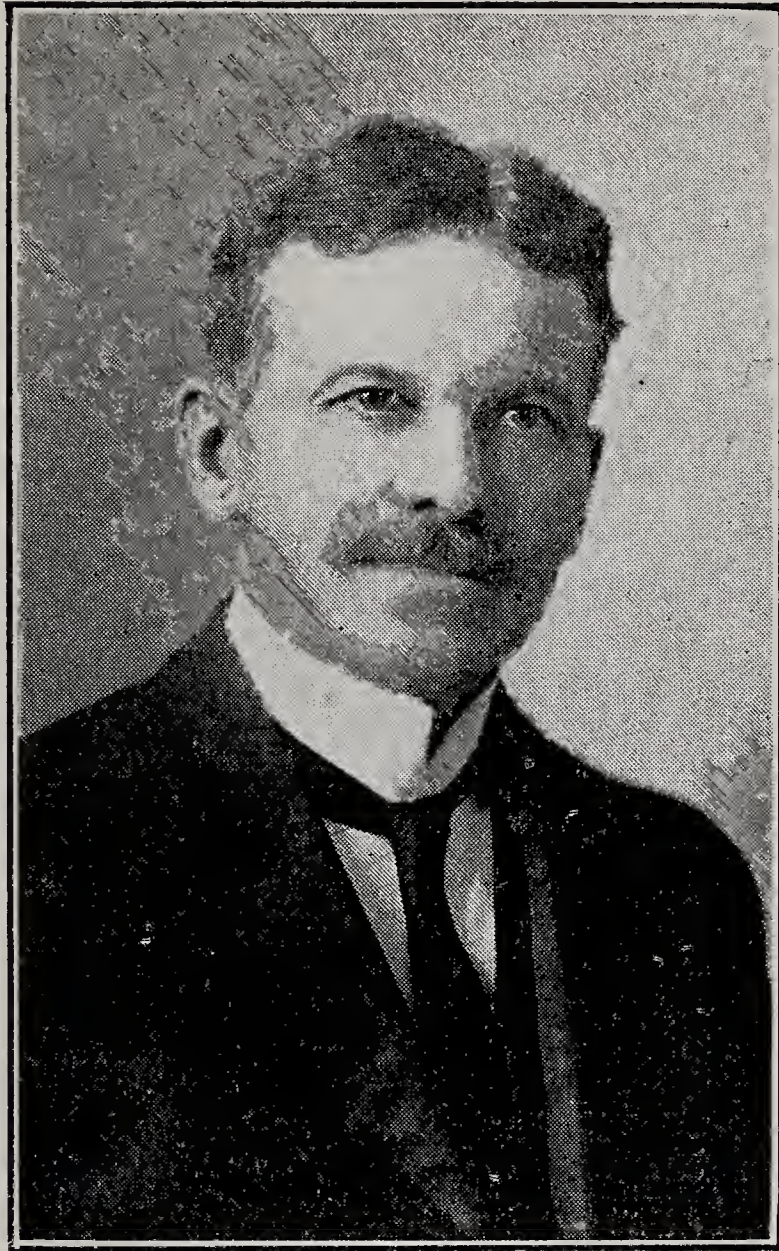

The average attendance was six.

On Easter Monday a tea was held in the Parish House as a farewell to Mrs. Blackburn, on which occasion the Rector kindly presented to her on behalf of the members Prayer and Hymn Books in a case as a slight appreciation of her many years of work in the Choir Guild.

Mr. Blackburn's Retirement.

Our minds have been full during the last few days of the resignation of Mr. Blackburn, who is severing his connection with the church as Organist and Choir Master after thirty years' devoted service. It is a pleasure to record that he leaves us with every expression of kindness, good-will and high appreciation from the whole congregation.

On Thursday, April 7th, the Rector and Mr. Langmuir, on behalf of the congregation, presented Mr. Blackburn with a gold watch and chain, as a token of appreciation. On the same occasion, Mr. H. Linall, on behalf of the men of the choir, presented a beautiful diamond pin. At the same time expressing on behalf of the choir regret at Mr. Blackburn's departure and best wishes for his future welfare.

The following is the address read to Mr. Blackburn on behalf of the congregation:—

CHURCH OF THE HOLY TRINITY,

Toronto, March 27, 1913.

Dear Mr. Blackburn.—At the Annual Vestry Meeting of the Church of the Holy Trinity, held on March the 24th. we, the undersigned, were appointed a committee to draw up the following resolution for record in the minutes of that meeting:—

“Resolved that this Vestry, on behalf of the congregation desire to express their great appreciation of the services of Mr. A. R. Blackburn, who from November 4th, 1882, to March 31st, 1913. has been organist and choirmaster of our church, and to assure him. on the occasion of his resignation from that position, that his high musical ability, his unfailing devotion to duty, and his stirring Christian character, have won for him a place in our affection which time cannot efface.”

We wish also to add on this occasion that the rector, churchwardens, and members of the congregation, feel that they would like to express in some tangible way their affectionate esteem and high regard for you, their gratitude for all that you have so unselfishly done for our Parish, and their best wishes for the future welfare of yourself and family.

We would therefore ask you to accept this watch and chain as a small token of our appreciation of you.

With every prayer that God may bless you, we remain on behalf of the Vestry and congregation.

The Girls' Friendly Society

There has been an average attendance of sixteen during the past season.

Monthly devotional meetings have been held and addresses given by the Rector.

The Corporate Communion has been well attended.

Much work has been accomplished—dolls dressed for the Christmas tree; articles made for the G.F.S. Bazaar. Ten articles of clothing were made and given to the Down-Town Church Workers' Association, and sewing is now being done for the Honan Mission.

One evening was devoted to entertaining two of our sister branches, St. Simon's and the Church of the Redeemer, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

The meetings will be closed for the season about the middle of May.

M. A. SMITH,
Secretary.

Mothers' Meeting

The Evening Mothers' Meeting has closed a very successful season, there being a good attendance throughout.

Four quilts have been made, two being sent to Dr. Grenfel's Mission and two to the North-West.

At Christmas the two Mothers' Meetings united in having a supper, which was followed by a concert. Both were much appreciated and enjoyed by everyone.

We hope to have a larger number of mothers attend our evening meetings. We will be pleased to welcome all who can come.

The second year in the life of this branch of the W. A. closes with every indication of a growing interest in the work.

The material results, though by no means the most practical, are at least encouraging, the contributions and amount of work accomplished being almost double that of last year, in spite of many difficulties and hinderance.

The past year has been a very trying one, especially for the President and her sisters, with whom the deepest sympathy was felt in their bereavement.

The meetings have been held every Thursday evening from 8 to 9.30, and on the second one in every month the sewing was laid aside for the reading of reports and general business.

In November last the branch undertook to provide clothing for a girl in the Blackfoot Home, as well as a boy, and have completed both, the Mothers' Meetings kindly donating a quilt for each. The Secretary received a letter from the Principal of the Blackfoot School in June telling of the arrival of last year's bale and of the great need these gifts are filling.

It is regrettable that more could not have been attempted in the way of mission study, but as a beginning several copies of the M.S.C.C. report, "Bearing Precious Seed," have been lent about among the members, four of whom take the "Leaflet" and two the "New Era." Then, too, on February 20th the Diocesan Treasurer gave a most interesting and instructive address on the aim and methods of the W. A.

With four new officers and a redistribution of the work, the outlook for the coming year is most promising. New members will be gladly welcomed at any time. If it is impossible to attend the meetings, there is still much one can do to help.

The Sewing Class

The Sewing Class for little girls has been held every Monday afternoon during the winter season. There has been a good increase in the attendance, having an average of thirty children each week. The work done is most gratifying, as the number of towels, pillow cases, aprons and handkerchiefs testified to those who came to the closing exercises. The closing consisted of the usual tea and a concert given by the children belonging to the Singing Class.

During Lent the Rector had a special service for these children in the Church on Monday and Friday afternoons at 5.15, which were well attended and much appreciated.

The teachers have been: Miss Leslie, Mrs. Canniff, Miss Locke and Miss Hardinge.

MARY LESLIE.

The Parish Visitor's Report

The work of the Parish Visitor has steadily increased. During the past year there have been paid ten hundred and forty-five visits. Some new families have come into the Parish, while many moved away. There has not been as much general poverty as last year, but a few special cases have had to receive considerable help. Forty-five dollars was given by the Rector for the Poor Fund.

Last year twelve children were taken to a summer camp for a fortnight, which was much enjoyed and of great benefit to their health. Part of the expenses for this treat was donated by kind friends.

At Christmas forty baskets were distributed among the poor of the Parish. Besides the gifts given by the A.Y.P.A. and other friends, fifty dollars was spent on Christmas Cheer.

The Wednesday afternoon Mothers' Meeting has greatly increased, there being a membership of fifty and an average attendance of twenty-five, with about the same number of children. Monthly devotional addresses and medical lectures have been given throughout the year, also two very interesting talks on Missions. A most enjoyable supper was given the mothers at Christmas and a concert after Easter, both of which were much appreciated.

Numerous articles of clothing were made by the mothers for their children. Small rummage sales have paid for the refreshments given each week. In every way it has been a most successful year. The Sunday Creche is another feature of the work. This enables the mothers to leave their babies and small children in the schoolhouse, where they are well looked after, while they attend the evening service.

The Singing Class has had an average attendance of twenty. They have worked hard to prepare for their two concerts. They took the entire programme of the Infants' 'treat at Christmas and for the closing of the spring season.

The Down-Town Church Workers' Association has taken up a great deal of the Parish Visitor's time, as she was appointed parochial head of the work in this Parish. This involves the supervising of the district visiting, attending weekly meetings, making reports of work done and help given so as to avoid overlapping. Through this Association names of new-comers are from time to time given to us, and that means new families to visit and new children for our Sunday School.

E. H. HARDINGE.

The Singing Class

The Singing Class for the small children has been held every Friday afternoon, having an average attendance of twenty.

We were most fortunate this year in having the able assistance of Miss Rachel Blizard, a kindergarten teacher, who has taken great pains with the children in teaching them many novel games and songs, the result being they gave two very creditable concerts during the year, one at Christmas and the other at the closing of the Sewing Class on April 15th.

The Envelope Committee.

During the year two appeals were made to the congregation to increase their offertories and to subscribe to the envelope system. The response to these appeals of the Envelope Committee was not satisfactory. As a final effort, it was decided to establish the duplex envelope system, and a letter was accordingly written to the members of the congregation, appealing to them to adopt this plan and enclosing box of envelopes for their use. A very satisfactory response was made, as the following statement of contributions for the year 1913 as compared with the year 1912 will indicate:—

Holy Trinity Men's Club.

This organization, we are very glad to say, is progressing favorably and is doing good work in the Parish. Our main object is to provide for men who are living in lodgings a place where they can meet other men and feel themselves thoroughly at home.

Through the generosity of the Church we were enabled this year to purchase a billiard table and some very comfortable furniture, both of which items have helped greatly in making the clubroom in every way more attractive.

During the season we got up a debate on the question which is at the present time engrossing the attention of the Dominion Parliament. The matter of Naval Policy we thrashed out, and the award was given to the side favoring the present Conservative policy.

Debates of this sort are very interesting, not only for the actual participants, but also for the audience, as many new views are brought to light, and one's opinions are often modified by a close study of the point at issue.

On one occasion we were the guests of St. George's, and we spent a very enjoyable evening. We hope in the near future to have the pleasure of reciprocating the kindness extended to us.

On another occasion the Treasurer of the Club, Mr. C. Pape, gave us a social evening, which was an eminent success, and was, we are glad to say, well attended.

Just at present we are having a billiard tournament, and judging from the interest taken in it, it is likely to be the first of many.

In the near future we have arranged for a box social, and if an opinion can be formed from past experiences, this should be very successful.

These few remarks merely outline our doings, and we would be very glad indeed to extend a hearty welcome to any man to come and judge for himself.

For the Board,

F. S. HARROD.

President.

The Boys' Club.

In presenting their first annual report the officers of the Boys' Club desire to thank all those who have in any way contributed to make the Club a success on this its trial trip. Among these we must mention the Churchwardens through whose liberal donation it was possible to equip the Club with some gymnasium apparatus. The thanks of the Club are also due to the ladies who have so ably assisted on festive evenings.

The interest in the Club has been well sustained throughout the winter. There has been a substantial increase in the membership, and there is every prospect of the Club becoming a permanent factor in our Parochial activities.

During the summer months the boys intend to take part in outdoor sports. A ball team has been formed and this team has joined a ball league.

The officers hope that when the winter season once more comes round there will be an increased interest in this work among the boys of our Church.
